

bOing! 2015

International Family Festival
Gulbenkian, Canterbury
29 & 30 Aug 2015

Gulbenkian
University of Kent

bOing! 2015

Welcome to bOing! 2015, our international festival for all the family, bringing to Kent some of the best performers and artists from across Europe.

bOing! 2015 is bigger and better than ever before. We have an amazing, spectacular outdoor performance Fragile, specially commissioned by Gulbenkian, bringing JCBs together with stunning dancers, the award winning work Clouds from the world renowned Spanish company Aracaladanza, Toddler's Room - a magical installation dance work from Norway for the very young - and lots, lots more.

bOing! is also out and about this year visiting Chatham on 27 and 28 August with the fantastic Urban Playground's STEAM.

We look forward to sharing this amazing festival with you, your family and friends.

Liz Moran
Director, Gulbenkian

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

The company that defined performance-parkour return with an energetic dance-theatre piece unlike anything you've seen before.

In STEAM, The Urban Playground Team reimagine the life of a steam locomotive through scenes inspired by the silent movies of Buster Keaton, the gun fights of the old West and the rooftop stunts of James Bond.

Performances accompanied by a free parkour workshop so you can try it yourself!

bOing! bounces into Medway

We are taking Urban Playground's STEAM and free parkour workshops to Chatham – 27 & 28 August.
