boingfestival.com

Welcome to bOing! 2018

Gulbenkian
University of Kent

It is hard to believe this year will be our 5th bOing! Festival! Thank you to all of you who have supported bOing! over the years and helped us grow to become one of Europe's leading family arts festivals.

There is so much to explore and discover at bOing! this year...

As ever we are offering some of the best shows for children and their families from all over the world including Denmark, Spain, The Netherlands, France and for the first time - Australia. You can lie back in a hammock and enjoy the beautiful projections and storytelling of Teatret Gruppe 38; enter the tiny world of Cia de Teatre Anna Roca to uncover the Secret of Nanna; be inspired by beautiful dance and colours of Constellations by Aracaladanza; be amazed at Efren Pamilacan Jr.'s freestyle dance battles and much more.

This will be my last year as Artistic Director and I want to take this opportunity to thank all of our funders; the incredible artists; our amazing welcoming and friendly staff and volunteers but above all you, our bOing! audience.

I look forward to bOing! getting even better under the expert and fresh eye of Oliver Carruthers, newly arrived Director of Gulbenkian.

Enjoy looking through the brochure. Some events are already very busy and I suggest you plan your bOing! weekend and book tickets as early as possible.

bOing! in the City Centre

Every year we bring a performance from bOing! to the centre of Canterbury. This year we have two!

On Friday 24 August Cohesion Plus, 4x4 Bhangra and the Bollywood Brass Band will bring their vibrant, entertaining music and dance to the streets of the city. Then later in the day Efen Pamilacan Jr. and crew, all the way from Australia, will be wowing crowds with the explosive energy of their hip hop City Sessions.

Check boingfestival.com for details and timings.

bOing! in the City Centre is brought to you in partnership with Canterbury Connected BID.

Multi-award winning Aracaladanza consistently delight audiences throughout Europe with their extraordinarily magical dance theatre made especially for children and families. Using the brilliantly abstract work of artist Joan Miro as inspiration, choreographer Enrique Cabrera fills his imaginary blank canvas with vivid colours, shapes and movement.

Enter a dazzling maze of winding paths and soaring domes where Islamic architecture and Gothic cathedrals meld into an inspiring monument to the beauty of light and colour and where visitors of all ages can happily lose themselves. The Main Dome of Katena resembles a pineapple and has been likened to a Hindu temple from the inside.

Tickets can be bought on the day (expect queues at busy times). We recommend that you book entry in advance – a limited number of tickets are available. Time in the Luminarium is limited to 20 minutes at busy periods, but longer if no queue. Children under the age of 16 need to be accompanied by an adult. Katena is accessible to wheelchair users.

Nanna and her partner are two imaginauts (pilots who explore the imagination) who travel the world in a lorry to explain a secret. They have come to bOing! to share what they're carrying in the cargo space of the lorry – the world's largest pop up book.
